

LOCAL BANKRUPTCY (IRELAND) ACT, 1883

ORDER IN COUNCIL, made on the 2nd June 1890, making provision for the alteration of the Court House at Belfast.

THE LOCAL BANKRUPTCY (IRELAND) ACT, 1888.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

By the Lords Justices and Privy Council in Ireland.

EDWARD SAXE-WEIMAR, General.

HEDGES EYRE CHATTERTON.

JOHN T. BALL.

WHEREAS by the Local Bankruptcy (Ireland) Act, 1888, it is enacted that the Lord Lieutenant may, by Order in Council, from time to time after the passing of the said Act, direct that provision shall be made by the several Grand Juries or Town Councils having rating powers in the district in which a Local Bankruptcy Court shall be established under the said Act, or by some one of them, for the erection of a suitable and convenient courthouse and offices, or for the alteration, so as to make the same suitable and convenient, of any existing courthouse and offices, for the transaction of the business of the Local Bankruptcy Court, and may estimate the sum of money requisite for that purpose, and what proportion of such sum is to be contributed by each such body:

Now, We, the Lords Justices General and General Governors of Ireland, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, and under and by virtue of the said Local Bankruptcy (Ireland) Act, 1888, and the powers therein contained, and of any other power thereunto enabling Us, do hereby, by this our Order, direct that provision shall be made by the several Grand Juries of the county of Antrim, the county of Down, the county of the town of Carrickfergus, and by the Town Council of the city of Belfast, for the alteration, so as to make the same suitable and convenient, of the existing courthouse and offices in the city of Belfast, for the transaction of the business of the Belfast Local Bankruptcy Court.

That the sum to be expended on such alterations shall not exceed 150 l.

That the sum of 20 l. thereof shall be contributed by the Grand Jury of the county of the town of Carrickfergus, and that the balance thereof, amounting to the sum of 130 l., shall be contributed in equal shares by the Grand Jury of the county of Antrim, the Grand Jury of the county of Down, and the Town Council of the city of Belfast.

Given at the Council Chamber, Dublin Castle, this 2nd day of June 1890.
